Live from the Dallas Art Fair Day 3

Today is the last day of the Dallas Art Fair. We have had an incredible art fair experience, and even sold several pieces! Who knows what the rest of the day will hold, but we can only hope for the best.

If you haven't made your way to f.i.g. come on over! We will be here until 5 pm today. All works not sold at the Dallas Art Fair will be available at Artspace111 starting next week.

Live from the Dallas Art Fair Day 2

We survived Day 1 of the Dallas Art Fair with just a few blisters on our feet. The glitterati were out in full force Thursday night for the Preview Gala... and we sold our first piece of the art fair!

Day 2 has proven to be a great success as well. We have had a steady stream of eager art enthusiasts meander through our gallery space.

If you haven't been to the Dallas Art Fair yet, you still have the weekend to check it out... and don't miss Artspace111 on the first floor.
