

Memo:

February 2009 | Issue 22

The Red Issue: 'Tis February, and no finer a time for bouquets, bubbly, and buoyancy. Seeing shades of red, or rather, pink? Way to think. Opt for observance through rose-colored glasses and leave all fussing and fretting to the masses. The luxury life calls for lingering over lunch and conversing with a cool congregation of fashionable folk; as such, the second installment of FASHION DISH promises to please thee with talented up-and-coming designer Thuy.

The St. Valentine's Day Luncheon and Fashion Show will warm the heart and the Dallas Art Fair shall serve up some serious art. Shoes over which to muse? An open-toed option from Larvin sings of spring. Tote your treasures in a bag from Katherine Fleming and scent thyself with Jil Sander for your beloved's bliss. Live to love and love to live, Valentine; may an idyllic existence be thine.

Dallas Art Fair

You're invited to experience an artful start to the New Year, dear. More than 30 prominent national art dealers from 12 cities will exhibit paintings, sculpture, drawings, prints and photographs by modern and contemporary artists at the first annual Dallas Art Fair. Located at the Fashion Industry Gallery (F.I.G.), in the revitalized downtown Arts District, this event is sure to establish Dallas as one of the nation's leading art centers.

A special, invitation-only Preview Gala will launch the Dallas Art Fair on Thursday February 5th, 2009. The Gala will give art patrons and Dallas Art Fair exhibitors the opportunity to preview the exhibits prior to the start of the event. A portion of ticket proceeds will benefit a local non-profit organization.
