

DALLAS ART FAIR

Dallas' thriving arts scene has birthed the city's first annual Dallas Art Fair, an enriching two-day event celebrating modern and contemporary art. Kicking off February 6 in the Fashion Industry Gallery (FIG), this event will exhibit works in a variety of mediums from post-war artists like Chuck Close, Damien Hirst and Rufino Tamayo. Local galleries Dunn & Brown Contemporary and Valley House Gallery, Inc. & Sculpture Garden will be among the 31 participating national art dealers. 1807 Ross Ave, 214-748-4344. www.dallasartfair.com. —Taylor Covington
